OLD BUSINESS

Jason Morton Planning Update (3/1 – 3/4)

Kwong Young said the tournament went very smoothly. The cost for the tennis official will be $500.00 and he is waiting for the invoice from him. The weather was perfect and Kwong offered the volunteers a free hour lesson for their help. John Radcliffe reported there were a few people who did not want to play on courts 7 and 8 because of the pickleball noise. Kwong said he did get some complaints from members because the tournament took all the courts. He suggested maybe next year they would allow them to play from 7:00AM to 8:30AM before the tournament starts to fix this issue.

Update on NWC Dance Fund Raiser

Norb Guimond reported from Vivian Guimond that the donation total was $5700.00. With the Cottonwood/Palo Verde Foundation matching up to $5000.00, the total to Neighbors Who Care will be $10,700.00. Dave Wilcox asked Dar Brasch if her husband, John, could make a big check to present to Neighbors Who Care with an article and picture for the Splash.

Membership Report

Norb Guimond said we currently have 297 members. He said it averages from 285 to 300 throughout the year.

2018-19 ITOC Board Nominees

Dave Rokusek said it was a very difficult task to find someone that will take over the IOTC board. The nomination committee are suggesting the following people for candidates:

Joe Azzoro – President
Bill Gurovich-Vice President
Carol Mellinger-Secretary
Mike Davin & Dar Brasch – Play Directors
Doug Swanson-Treasurer
Dave Wilcox-Ex officio

Dave Wilcox asked Carol Mellinger to post this on the tennis bulletin board with room to write add-ins and to get a room in the Oakwood clubhouse for the next meeting on April 9th, 2019 when the candidates will be announced.

IOTC Activity Schedule for 2019-19

Dar Brasch said as soon as they get the final schedules from the other clubs, they can finalize the schedule. Mike Davin asked if the Fashion Show could be changed before April 1, 2019 so we could get more snowbirds to attend. The Fashion Show was changed to March 29, 2019. The singles tournaments were eliminated but there will be single leagues to play in. The pancake breakfast was added to the schedule and the date will be Saturday, June 30, 2018.

NEW BUSINESS

Volunteer Party

Dave Wilcox reserved the poolside for the volunteer party. He asked Carol to organize all the volunteer names with their email addresses and send it back to him. He said they had planned for around 40 attendees.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:00PM. The next meeting will be April 9, 2018 at 1PM in the Ballroom at the Oakwood Clubhouse.
